

CACHE Level 2 Award in Support Work in Schools (QCF)

What does the qualification cover?

This qualification is an introduction to the information and knowledge needed to work in a school environment. It can apply to the many varied roles that full and part time support staff may fulfill including: administrative roles, site support roles, technical roles and volunteers, as well as those roles that work directly with children and young people in the school environment.

Who is it aimed at?

Learners not yet employed in a school, as well as providing initial training and induction for those new in post in primary, secondary or special schools.

What are the entry requirements?

Learners should be at least 16 years old. CACHE does not set any other entry requirements but Centres may have their own guidelines.

How many credits are required to complete the qualification?

The Award will require 12 credits in total.

How is it assessed?

It will be internally assessed by a range of methods. This could include a portfolio of evidence, written assignments or a task set by CACHE.

Do learners need to be working to take this qualification?

No as this is a knowledge only qualification.

How long does it take to complete?

Learners can complete the Award in less than 6 months.

What related qualifications can learners progress to?

The Award shares mandatory units with the Level 2 Supporting Teaching and Learning in Schools qualification providing a direct progression route.

Which type of job roles can learners apply for on completion?

The Award is intended to support individuals to access employment in school environments.
